

Your competence.
Our experience.
Together for excellence.

Geosynthetics Application Engineer

Permanent position - Montréal, Western Canada and Northeastern USA

UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE GEOSYNTHETICS DIRECTOR:

- Respond to customer inquiries regarding soil issues;
- Meet with civil engineers and contractors;
- Prepare technical budget proposals and present them to clients to help them with their technical choices;
- Provide technical training presentations to our client's design services;
- Participate in the preparation of technical documentation;
- Attend and participate in the various technical committees, congresses and industry associations on its territory.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering or Civil Engineering technician combined with relevant experience;
- Minimum of 2 years experience with civil engineer consultants or contractors;
- Available to travel occasionally;
- Ability to analyze client needs and persuasion;
- Perfectly bilingual.

COMMISSIONS:

- Commissions or performance bonus program offered.

If you are interested in the challenge, please send us your resume by e-mail to LRouleau@lydall.com

